

MASER  RIPLEY®

Smart Aligner FX

Antenna Alignment System

WA20-7500

Fast Alignment For Telecom Antennas

Engineered for simplicity, the WA20-7500 features a lightweight design with a rugged construction for rapid azimuth finding. The full system includes the tool, universal mounting bracket and carrying case, plus chargers.

Smart  FX

A Hubbell brand

Features

- Reduced weight vs competitive products - total tool weight of 2.2 lbs
- Intuitive design for simplified antenna alignment
- Easy-to-use interface and mobile application for site reporting
- IP-65 rated for rugged deployment in all conditions
- Precise azimuth and tilt & roll readings
- Free Smart Aligner mobile app (iOS & Android) for building reports, including pictures

Available as a system or as individual components:

| WA20-7500                                                                           | WA20-7520                                                                           | WA20-7000                                                                             |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  |  |  |
| Smart Aligner FX System                                                             | SAFX Universal Mounting Bracket                                                     | Smart Aligner FX Tool                                                                 |